Use Case Specification: Drug Conviction Eligibility Worksheet within Application

1. Use Case Name: Drug Conviction Eligibility Worksheet within Application

1.1 Brief Description

This use case describes how an Applicant completes the Drug Conviction Eligibility Worksheet within the Application. A federal law suspends federal student aid eligibility for students convicted under federal or state law of possession or sale of drugs. This worksheet will help you determine whether the law affects your eligibility for federal student aid.

1.2 Note

- Navigation to get page-specific help messages is not documented in this use case. Please refer to “FAFSA_WEB_Help.doc” for more information.
- Description of concept, data, variables and database interactions is defined in “FAFSA_WEB_Glossary.doc.”
- Edit error process (validation and error display) is defined in “FAFSA_WEB_Edit_Error.doc.”

- If WSDrug parameter equals '1', display the following:

Based on the answers you provided in this worksheet, we have determined that your answer to question 35 of the 2001-2002 FAFSA is: 1

Enter 1 in the box for question 35, complete your FAFSA and submit it.

This answer indicates that your eligibility for federal student aid is not affected by question 35.

If you are convicted of possessing or selling drugs after you submit your FAFSA, you must notify your financial aid administrator immediately. You will lose your eligibility, and be required to pay back all aid you received after your conviction.

- If WSDrug parameter equals '3' and there is no eligibility date, display the following:

Based on the answers you provided in this worksheet, we have determined that your answer to question 35 of the 2001-2002 FAFSA is: 3

Enter 3 in the box for question 35, complete your FAFSA and submit it.

This answer indicates that you will be ineligible for federal student aid for some portion of the 2001-2002 school year. You may still be eligible to receive state, school, and other non-federal student aid for the whole school year. On your eligibility date, {display eligibility date calculation}, your ineligibility for federal student aid will end.

After you complete and submit your FAFSA, you should notify your financial aid administrator of your eligibility date so he or she can determine if you can receive federal student aid for the 2001-2002 school year. You may become eligible earlier in the school year if you complete an acceptable drug rehab program.

If you are convicted of possessing or selling drugs after you submit your FAFSA, you must notify your financial aid administrator immediately. You will lose your eligibility, and be required to pay back all aid you received after your conviction
